the menu is very varied and the dishes in my case a matching of its good. However, this lacks finesse. The restaurant is located in the middle of a very impersonal commercial area. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. If you feel like snacks, you should visit Restaurant Daou because they have tasty desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. For those who are still undecided, the smell of fresh flatbread and the scrumptious, sticky delight of fresh baklava might be just the conviction they need - the Middle East is undoubtedly closer than one believes, Easily digestible Mediterranean meals are also on the menu.
