I like eating in krishna vilas. the half of their menu is either vegan or can be made vegan. it is quite difficult to decide what to eat. eating is delicious and not too expensive. I had a starter (manchurian gobi) and a head (mysore masala dosa) and was full of sat. the staff is also very friendly and can be on vegan dishes advise. In addition, you will find dishes that you can find in no other Indian restaurant in... read more. What User doesn't like about Krishna Vilas:

the waiter has unfortunately not understood veganism. I wanted a dish that could be adjusted to vegan after the menu, but he insisted that everything on the entire menu including the yogurt, wiper and butter ghee was all vegan anyway, so no adjustments required. at the reflexion I should probably have been converted to a dish that was vegan marked, but I was irritated and had lost faith in the place and went. While t... read more.
