Nice restaurant with vintage atmosphere. They serve traditional Luxembourgish dishes like bouchee a la reine, cordon bleu, various kinds of meat as well as alcohols. In the menu cart you can also find some desserts like dame blanche, waffles and daily tart. read more. What User doesn't like about Mousel's Cantine:

When we arrived the restaurant was not full, what we didn't expect in the beginning. What I do enjoyed from the beginning is to drink a nice home brewed beer. Lovely. The menu card looks fine, but too expensive for what you get. €27,50 for a plate with Luxembourgish specialities and a really small vegetables side dish. I cannot recommend this meal. Other guest got like the double amount of food if they choose for a d... read more.
