The Gold Coast dining scene presents a diverse experience, but recent visits to several restaurants yield a mix of satisfaction and disappointment. While some patrons enjoy pleasant atmospheres and generous portions, others report cold food, rude service, and unbearable wait times. A popular choice for families—waterfire—has received praise for its flavorful dishes and friendly staff, albeit with some bar service issues. Conversely, other venues face criticism for their declining food quality and inattentiveness. Diners are left contemplating their loyalty, as unfulfilled expectations challenge their previous positive experiences.
